Meet your Patriot's Landing Leasing Specialist: Audrianna

" I'm new to the industry of Property Management, but am motivated to always try my best and make this a top priority as my career choice and I'm more than excited that I've chosen this for my future! I enjoy helping out our residents and doing everything I can to make them happy. I'm a mother to a great little boy and have a fantastic sidekick (husband) that always supports me in my endeavors. I grew up in a military family; with my dad, uncle, and grandpa all being Air Force Retirees, and followed in their footsteps as a Linguist in my early years. I was born and raised in the Southern Illinois area and currently reside in Fairview Heights, so if you ever need any tips, tricks, or general information about the area, I'm your go-to girl and I'm here to help! I love being outdoors, going on motorcycle rides, playing sports, hiking, reading, and I'm not shy about trying new things. I also enjoy spending time with family & friends, meeting new people, and helping out anywhere I can when needed. Scott Air Force Base is where I grew up, so it goes without saying that I'm so excited and proud to be serving our military, and can't wait for what the future holds! "
